

Joseph Davis
Balance Engineer

EDUCATION: Fayetteville Technical Institute
Fayetteville, NC
Mechanical Engineering Technology – May June 1967

US Army September 1967-August 1970
101st Airborne August 1969- August 1970
Republic of South Vietnam

EXPERIENCE: Cleveland Electric
Birmingham, Alabama
November 1970
To
and
Responsible for Mechanical Repair, Rebuild, Balancing of Rotating Equipment
and
Vibration Analysis
July 1978

August 1978
To December 1984
Barron Industries
Leeds, Alabama
Position: Manager Field Services, Small Fan Manufacturing and Rebuilds

January 1985
To
January 1987
Owner of Davis Vibration Consultants
Vibration Analysis, Field Balance of Flexible Rotors (Steam Turbine Units)

February 1987
To
May 1991
Sulzer Escher Wyss
Position: Operation Manager
Responsible for Mechanical Repair, Rebuild, of Steam Turbines and Paper
Machines

Current Responsibilities Include:

Design, engineering and Manufacturing of large low speed Balance Machines and flexible rotor balancing

Management Duties: Administrative and Personnel

AFFILIATIONS: Licensed user of ISO 2953