

Edward J Skiba
Project Engineer

EDUCATION: Kelly High School
Chicago, Illinois
1962-1966

Military: US Army
Army Core of Engineers 1966-1968
Vietnam Veteran

EXPERIENCE: General Electric Company Chicago Service Shop
Chicago, IL

June 1968
to
August 1972 Position: Machinist: Machining quality parts requiring tight tolerances, fine finishes and unusual surfaces.

August 1972
to
January 1975 Position: Work Leader: Responsible for ensuring in-shop and field projects were completed correctly, efficiently and in a timely manner using the proper personell.

January 1975
to
January 1981 Position: Turbine Engineer: Responsible for planning projects, specifying turbine repairs, and providing engineering support to numerous customers.

January 1981
to
January 2000 Preferred Machine and Tool, Inc.
Position: President, Manager Engineering: Responsible for Engineering, Process Development, Design, Business Operations, Etc.

April 2004
to
January 2007 Steam Turbine Engineering And Maintenance, Inc.
Fernandina beach, Florida
Present Position: Project manager, Consultant, Training

Current Responsibilities Include:

Project Manager for various Turbine evaluation, engineering, rotor and diaphragm repair and valve projects

Welding Engineering and Process Instructions, Welder Certification

Instructing direct labor personnel in repair procedures for rotating blades, covers and tenons

Performing steam path inspections, life evaluations and audits

AFFILIATIONS: Member: VFW, NRA